Project Tracker, Velocity & Burndown Chart

Sprint Tracker

Sprint	Total Story Points	Duration	Sprint Start Date	Sprint End Date (Planned)	Story Points Completed	Sprint Release Date
Sprint-1	20	6 Days	01 Feb 2025	06 Feb 2025	20	06 Feb 2025
Sprint-2	20	6 Days	08 Feb 2025	13 Feb 2025	18	13 Feb 2025
Sprint-3	20	6 Days	15 Feb 2025	20 Feb 2025	17	20 Feb 2025
Sprint-4	20	6 Days	22 Feb 2025	27 Feb 2025	19	27 Feb 2025

Velocity Calculation

Sprint Duration: 10 days

Team Velocity: 20 story points per sprint

Average Velocity (AV)

$$AV = \frac{\text{Total Story Points}}{\text{Sprint Duration}}$$

$$AV = \frac{20}{10} = 2 \text{ story points per day}$$

This means the team can complete 2 story points per day, which helps in future sprint planning and estimation.

Burndown Chart

A Burndown Chart represents the amount of work remaining versus time. It is used to track sprint progress and ensure timely delivery.

Burndown Chart Explanation (for LearnHub)

- X-axis: Sprint duration (days)
- Y-axis: Remaining story points
- The downward trend indicates progress
- If the line reaches zero on the last day, the sprint is successful

For the LearnHub project, the burndown chart helps the team:

- Track daily progress
  - Identify delays early
  - Improve sprint planning and delivery

Conclusion

The product backlog, sprint planning, velocity, and burndown tracking ensure that the LearnHub project follows Agile best practices. This structured approach enables timely delivery, efficient resource utilization, and continuous improvement across development cycles.
